This Day in September
By William Ashe, June 2013

Verse 1

I have been here for so many years
I have been here without shedding tears
Me and my friends waiting for someone to remember
But finally you're here on this day in September

Chorus 1

I lived my life behind walls cold and gray
In a place where I never wanted to stay

Verse 2

After years in this cold damp earth
Today with you here I have had a rebirth
Everyone needs to know they are loved and remembered
For me today is that day - this day in September

Chorus 2

I wanted to live with family and friends
But here I died, lived my life here til the end

Verse 3

I have been waiting here with close and fine friends
They too had lived here until the very end
So today without tears we celebrate
Please don't forget us, know that it is never too late

Chorus 1

I lived my life behind walls cold and gray
In a place where I never wanted to stay

Ending

I have been here for so many years
I have been here without shedding tears
I have been here for so many years
